Correction to: A primary neural cell culture model to study neuron, astrocyte, and microglia interactions in neuroinflammation

Noah Goshi¹, Rhianna K. Morgan², Pamela J. Lein² and Erkin Seker^{3*}

Correction to: Journal of Neuroinflammation (2020) 17:155

Following publication of the original article [1], the authors identified a typo in one value. The 5 µg/mL as the LPS concentration were wrongly given as 5 µM in several instances in the article. This typo does not affect any results or conclusions.

It should read as: 5 µg/mL.
